

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 24, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

'V' word worries some in state

2-year schools see cuts coming

La. firm wins I-55 project bid

Corps removes self from lake plan

Committee amends backflow regulation

Miss. Chemical loss blamed on high gas prices

Calif. 'Burning Through' Emergency Power Money

Editorials

Lawmakers pass buck on flag vote

Governor, leave seat belts alone

Flag fight shows lack of progress

<http://web.sunherald.com>

House panel kills sheriffs' radar bill

Bush proposes education plan

State justice proposed for federal judgeship

Column: Utility companies are trying to:

www.gomemphis.com

Nissan could open doors to economic growth in county, area

www.desototimes.com

State officials visit Southaven promoting opportunities with Nissan

Warehouse tax removal would repay Mississippi faster than Nissan deal

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Radar bill defeated in committee

Aldermen urge Nissan applications for local contractors

Legislators should reconsider radar bill

<http://www.meridianstar.com>

Meridian, Nissan links explored

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Lampton pegged for U.S. Attorney post

Bill would regulate burglar-alarm industry

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

Bush unveils school reform Plan pushes vouchers and targets illiteracy

Testing, not vouchers, holds best bet for lagging students